

Rounding the Corners

*Vocal Recital with Martha Howe, contralto
Mary Barranger, pianist*

Sunday March 20, 2011

4:00 p.m.

Christ Lutheran Church

4761 Cass St. 92109

(between Missouri and Chalcedony – parking lots are off Chalcedony)

www.christpb.org

Love can be an inspiration, a torment, a goal and treasure, and an ever-present comfort and companion through the passages of life and of death.

Martha and Mary will be performing songs about the wonder and mystery of love by Purcell, Beethoven, Duparc, Flaherty, Guettel and two local composers, Robert Fürstenthal and Ron Gillis.

This recital is sponsored by the Musical Merit Foundation, and admission is free, with a reception afterward.

*Martha Howe, Musical Merit winner in '78 and '80, has performed throughout the United States, Canada and Austria, including over a dozen roles with San Diego Opera and Wagner's RING during her five seasons with Lyric Opera of Chicago. She lived for a decade in Vienna, and has returned to San Diego to teach and write. A list of her extensive repertoire and experience can be found on her website: marthahowe.com

Mary Barranger has performed extensively and been the principal pianist for the San Diego Symphony since 1976, the San Diego Chamber Orchestra (now Orchestra Nova) since 1988, and was a founding member of the Camarada Chamber Music Ensemble.